DETAILED ACTION

The Request for Reconsideration filed on 14 January 2007 has been acknowledged.

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 11-13 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Inui et al (US 5,719,604).

Inui et al disclose the following claimed features:

Regarding claim 11, an inkjet printhead chip (Figures 3 and 4) that comprises a wafer substrate (1); a CMOS drive circuitry layer (6) positioned on the wafer substrate (1), and a plurality of nozzle arrangements (Column 5, lines 29-48), each having a chamber (9) for containing ink, an ink ejection port (12) and a thermal bend actuator (2) electrically connected to, and spaced from, the CMOS drive circuitry layer (6) such that actuation of the thermal bend actuator (2) causes it to move relative to the substrate and thereby eject ink through the ink ejection port (Figure 4); wherein in its quiescent state, the thermal bend actuator (2) is spaced between 2 microns and 15 microns from the CMOS drive circuitry layer (column 7, lines 8-25).

Regarding claims 12 and 13, it is also disclosed that the thermal bend actuator (2) is spaced between 5 microns and 12 microns and between 6 microns and 10 microns from the CMOS drive circuitry layer (column 7, lines 8-25).

Regarding claim 16, it is further disclosed in Figure 9 that an ink jet printhead that includes a plurality of printhead chips (Column 5, lines 29-48).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The newly found reference of Inui et al (US 5, 719,604) discloses the claimed invention as shown above.
